

Jon Sions RGN DipN

Resuscitation Council UK Instructor

Jon is known for his enthusiasm, knowledge and skills as he strives to achieve his goal of achieving a fun and effective learning platform. A qualified nurse by background his career has primarily been in emergency nursing, resuscitation, project management and clinical education. Jon has spent much of his career establishing programmes to improve patient care through effective education.

Jon strives to ensure training programmes have a perfect balance of theory and practice to ensure that learners leave courses with the knowledge and confidence to apply what they have been learnt. He remains current in his clinical practice by working part time for the NHS as a Senior A&E Nurse and an ALS instructor.